A BIRD REPORT.
For pleasure and health,
Suggests that you
Should hunt up the wealth,
That the rules require
To give a sight,
Of the Quintette Club
At the hall to-night.

DR. N. W. TRACEY will begin a temperance meeting at Lancaster, Ky., next Sunday.

The gardens there are looking as well as could be wished.

The city has been very quiet for a week past and as a consequence the police have had very little to do.

There will be services in the M. E. Church led by Mrs. Vonholts and daughter at 3 p. m. and 7 p. m. to-day.

CHEAP.—We have dropped 25 per cent. on Flowers to-day.

H. Cox & Son, Second street.

The brick work of the addition to Odd Fellows' Hall began on Monday under the direction of Mr. George Clinger.

The next session of the Maysville district conference of the M. E. Church South will be held at Sardis, this county.

The clothing stores report that there has been a great improvement in business in the past week. Prices were never lower than they now are.

ONLY twelve pieces of city property are advertised for delinquent taxes this year by the Marshal. Of these five belong to white and seven to colored persons.

The meetings at the M. E. Church are creating a marked interest in religious matters and are very largely attended. Standing room only is the order each evening.

The funeral of Dr. William R. Wood will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence of Mr. J. James Wood, in Chester, the Rev. J. T. Hendrick officiating.

We are requested to say that Rev. M. W. Taylor, D. D., colored editor of the South Western Christian Advocate, of New Orleans, will preach at Higginsport on Sunday, the 31st instant.

ALLEN SUTTON, for burglary committed at Morehead, goes to Frankfort for two years, the Fleming Circuit Court having adjudged him guilty. Harrison Tinsley arrested with him was acquitted.

HOW E. C. PHISTER was chosen special Judge by the Fleming bar to preside during the absence of Judge Cole. It is a compliment to the bar of Maysville and an honor worthily bestowed.

A CURIOSITY in the way of a clock is on exhibition in the show window of Ballenger's jewelry store. It is of the finest mechanism and is warranted to run without winding for four hundred days.

SATURDAY afternoon a despatch called Judge Cole to Cambridge, Mass., his son Allen, being dangerously ill at Harvard Law School, from which he was to graduate in three weeks. The Circuit Court adjourned until to-day.

If you need anything in the way of furniture you will find a complete stock and prices very low at W. E. Grimes' establishment at the corner of Third and Market streets. They guarantee entire satisfaction. Call and see the stock.

One of the best preventatives of the chicken cholera is to soak corn in coal oil and feed the corn to the hens three or four times a week. Another method is to mix a tablespoonful of coal oil with two quarts of corn meal. Moisten the meal and feed twice a week.

Mrs. BOYD, of Covington, has bought an interest in the Cynthiana Democrat, and will aid in editing the paper. Mrs. Julia Hunt, the well-known actress, is said to be editing a newspaper at Wichita, Kansas. Miss Grimes, of Manchester, is doing editorial work on the Signal.

The annual meeting of the Confederate Survivors' Association, for the purpose of electing officers and the transaction of other business, will be held at the court house, in this city, next Saturday afternoon beginning at one o'clock. A full attendance of the members is desired.

The Marshal of Manchester, with a posse of five men from that place, were here last night and arrested a man on one of the shanty boats at the river on the charge of stealing wheat at Manchester and selling it at Concord. The party had about a dozen pistols and two double barrel shot guns. They left with their prisoner on the Boston.

Quintette Club at Lexington.

(Special to DAILY BULLETIN.)
The performance of the Mendelsohn Quintette Club last night was witnessed by a very large audience and everybody was delighted. There is no better musical organization anywhere. They deserve a crowded house in your city to-night.

E. R. BLAINE.

THE Lexington News, of Saturday, says: The snare drum used by the Maysville band in this city yesterday is the one which Charlie Norman was pounding for dear life when he was shot in the hand in the steamboat fight at Ashland. A large blood stain from Charlie's wound covers a portion of the drum head. Charlie should have this instrument as a momento of his fighting, bleeding and dying for his country.

A Man With Six Wives.

A man with six wives is likely to go to jail for bigamy, which, after all may not be much more disagreeable than trying to live with six women at a time. Either course is not more disagreeable than to be afflicted with dyspepsia and liver complaint. Frank Jones, of Cothran, Texas, writes, "I am using Brown's Iron Bitters for dyspepsia and debility, and it has done me a great deal of benefit." Any other man may receive similar advantage. It also cures malaria, weakness, neuralgia, etc.

THE Boston Quintette Club, which will appear at the opera house this evening, will furnish one of the best musical entertainments ever given in Maysville, and all lovers of good music ought to make it a point to be present. The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette says:

The audience is first impressed with the quiet demeanor and dignified bearing of the performers. They are dressed in a simple manner, and commence the work before the audience with a frank, hearty, honest and commanding spirit. Whether this lurks in the eyes of the first violin or is merely a result of long years of discipline and association with the surviving members, which must needs have been maintained; but however it comes it certainly gives the performers an auditorium spell-bound by the soft enchantment.

PERSONALS.

Miss Bella Hamilton, of Georgetown, Ky., is visiting Miss May Morgan.

Mr. Ed Cook, of Cincinnati, is in the city, and will remain for several days.

Miss Jessie Fible, of Louisville, is visiting Miss Jessie Johnson, of Third street.

Mr. John Love, of New York, is in Maysville to-day, and was cordially welcomed by his old friends.

Mr. J. J. Johnson, editor of the Democrat, Bedford, Ind., left Monday on the St. Lawrence for his home, after a pleasant visit to friends in the West End.

COUNTY POINTS.

MILWOOD.

A nice rain the other day and some tobacco plants set out.

Miss Price's school will close on Friday the 27th instant.

P. R. Ham, of Ewing, visited friends near Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Jessie Gordon returned from a visit to Lexington Saturday evening.

Miss Annie Hard anticipates attending commencement at Girard Female College on Friday proximo.

A Sunday school was organized at Mill Creek last Friday, with forty-two pupils.

Miss Sallie Hall close her school in Heidelberg afternoon, the 22nd instant. Her school will open again in a few weeks on account of measles.

Septimus Clark and Henry O'Connor, of Mayfield, were through the BULLETIN.

Our little village was very quiet yesterday, instant by Messrs. Morris & Clark, with their programs of lecturing, memory and slight of hand, and they will be back again to a crowded house. This show is moral and no expense will be spared in the production of what we received for attending it because it is above the average small show. The music and singing recommended. The balloon ascension was magnificent and as far as I can recollect and tell we think some six miles from here.

Sardis.

Miss Dick Harris family are visiting Judge Bell's family.

Miss Belle Fitzgerald has returned to our village and is one of our gayest social ladies.

Miss Anna Bratton has the only girl in this section that promises a full yield of wheat.

F. H. Traxel's ice cream parlors are now open for the season. Families, weddings, picnics, supplied on short notice and at low prices.

WILMAY.

Mr. Gus Wright, one of our best female teachers has gone to Millersburg to engage in his profession.

Mr. and Mrs. Winter have gone to Bourbon to superintend the farm crops of their son-in-law, Mr. Thomas Jefferson.

The great annual fair and the field and the cow-pen mite market of it has been reprinted, rolled and harrowed.

Miss Sam, Martin, Robert, Tom, Joseph and all the rest of the Bell, neighbors and friends of the Thomas Jefferson, were his friends.

Mr. John Porter has laid on the sweet little flower bed in front of his house a bed of immortal roses, as his floral offering. By the way, Mr. Porter is one of the most accomplished orators in the state.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Foster, of Highland, much respected citizen of our village, died Saturday last and was buried at Shawnee on Friday morning.

CROPS OF THE WORLD.

GENERAL CONDITION OF CEREALS AT HOME AND ABROAD.

The Reported Damage to Wheat is No Cause for Alarm—Paramount Pointers and Solid Sense for Grower and Consumer—Grains of Wisdom;

NEW YORK, May 26.—The stock market last week opened with a little boom carried over from the previous Saturday, but exhausted its strength in a few days and remained flat until Friday, when all through the week until Saturday, when a sudden spurt was given to Union Pacific and Pacific Mail. The small room traders on the bear side rushed into the market, shorting wheat, and the whole list was thus advanced precisely as it was a week ago. It is not unlikely that the opening will be extra strong, too, and that by midday, when some additional shorts have been covered, the market will begin to move. Outwardly, there is nothing to the front, and there is consequently no chance for a permanent advance. The so-called Gould stocks will of course be sustained for a few days, growing stronger, but there is no easily recognizable trend in the trunk lines, the granglers, and the coal stocks should not sell much lower. Most of them do not earn their fixed charges. The rates are not out in spite of assurances that the effects of the recent market decline are but an "attitude of willingness" to restore them, and the capital is to continue to keep their money in the banks without interest in preference to making it in so-called Wall street investments.

In the present condition of all branches of business, the crop prospects are of paramount importance at all times, and acquire an additional interest, as the reports of damage to the crops in Australia have caused alarm throughout the country. Both the official and the amateur statisticians are constantly figuring out how big will be our shortage in winter wheat, and if we are to believe the advertisements, it might think that we shall not have a bushel to spare this year.

Of course most of the statisticians liable in the grain market probably make up the figures themselves, and therefore their statements cannot be implicitly relied upon. That the winter wheat has been injured cannot be questioned, but the extent of the injury can hardly now be figured out at present, and the situation has been backward all over the world; it remains to be seen what mother nature will do in the next months or two on toward re-establishing a natural state of affairs. In any case, the accumulation of wheat on the world market is so large that there is not the slightest danger that humanity will run short of bread or even to pay more for it. The best proof of this is in all the statistical reports notwithstanding the fact that wheat in our leading markets is keeping steadily down, and does not advance even on all the false reports of shortages in wheat in other countries.

With regard to the last two weeks numbers of telegrams have intimated that the prospects of the crops in Europe are just as bad as they are here, and that India and Australia have suffered almost as much as Europe. Of course this was published for the purpose of putting breadups up. But there are facts gathered from the best financial and commercial articles of the London press. India a bountiful wheat harvest has already been gathered in.

In Australia the yield is far above the average.

New Zealand was visited by rain-storms in the middle of April, and has thus partially lost the advantage of an extra dry crop.

In Great Britain the dry weather of April began to be threatening, but the frequent showers which have set in since seem to have allayed all the apprehensions of the farmers even though the weather of the last few weeks seems to have been particularly discouraging.

As is the case in this country the season is about a month backward in England, but the agriculturists are still in the showers of May, so we may have been just as sceptical as those which should have come in April. All that seems to be wanted now is warm weather for six or eight weeks, and if the predictions of weather prophets, both here and abroad are correct, the world is going to have it very warm indeed.

It appears from the reports that there is not a single crop in Great Britain which is not in a poor condition. The wheat crop has failed worse than the winter wheat, spring being none the worse for backwardness. It is everywhere a full plant of healthy color, and well over the ground. According to the Daily News of London, "Even farmers who are not agriculturists take a sanguine view of crop prospects, and implicitly admit that they have seldom seen so fair a promise of a bountiful harvest."

Report from most of the European countries as follows as presented as from Great Britain, with the single exception of the Auto-Hungarian empire, where some damage is reported.

The dry April seems to have affected the south of Russia, as it did Great Britain, but according to the Petersburg papers, farmers came to the rescue and the grain growers, who at one time showed a disposition to keep the old crop but began fresh to sell it again.

It seems therefore that the report of the gloom need工作组 appeared an advance in the price of bread, and if bread goes down it will drag down with it the price of all the other articles of food, make workers all the better off, and ultimately revive the manufacturing and industrial interests.

All the talk about the farmers suffering from the fall in the price of grain is nonsense, beginning with the wheat which drags other commodities down farmers get none of them in exchange for it, and then they can simply change from year to year their system of culture. There is no earthly reason why Australia should not increase its imports in increasing their production of wheat when they see that New Zealand, Australia, India or Russia can undersell them in the market of the world, and to knock out of the American farmer's head the idea that that this country is the only granary of the world. Our corn will always encounter an increasing demand, with the exception of Russia, and for the Danubian region we are the only ones who can supply it, but wheat is grown everywhere.

NEW YORK, May 26.—A probably clue to the identity of the young woman who shot herself at the Grand Union hotel is furnished by a dispatch received from New York yesterday, to the effect that K. B. Biddle, Miss B. Biddle has been missing since Wednesday. Just such a girl as described.

Signed,
WILLIS WILLIAMS.
